

2020 ASID Texas Chapter Student Symposium Event Sponsorship Opportunity

November 2nd – 6th, 2020 | Virtual | www.asidtxstudentsymposium.org

Dear ASID Industry Partners & Practitioners –

Every autumn the Texas Chapter of ASID organizes a student-focused two day event, exposing future designers from schools all over Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, New Mexico and Arkansas to the real world of the industry, while bringing them together to learn from established professionals and valuable industry members such as yourselves.

This year's event returns to its inaugural home in Dallas, Texas but we are taking it VIRTUAL to reach even more students. The event continues to grow every year and we are capping this year at 250 virtual attendees per our awesome itinerary and host site requirements. This event is so significant that we have an entire website dedicated to it: www.asidtxstudentsymposium.org. We are in the process of populating the website so check back regularly to see updates and our line-up of events.

Industry Partners build your brand, expand your clients, expose your name, products, and services to students while they are essentially a blank slate and hungry for knowledge and sources. Trust us, we've built some long-lasting successful relationships over the years.

Practitioners scope out the best and the brightest designers of tomorrow for internships and entry-level positions that will help your business grow and adapt with these changing times.

Your participation in the 2020 Student Symposium is crucial to its success and to the sustained development of emerging ASID designers. We are looking for your help in funding portions of this indispensable, career-building experience not directly covered by the chapter's budget. With your participation and help, you will be providing the opportunity to make a difference in the lives of our future Practitioner, Educator, and Industry Partner members, not to mention the future leaders of our Society. We have expanded our pricing tiers to accommodate all sizes, budgets and abilities given this year's very uncertain start. There will be brighter times ahead for us all!

We ask that you secure your sponsorship by 5pm Wednesday, October 28, 2020, so that the Committee has time to incorporate all sponsors' names and logos into event materials.

Please see the next page for 2020 Sponsorship levels. THANK YOU for your time and support for ASID and the ASID Texas Chapter!

If you are interested in becoming a sponsor, please complete the official form on the next page of this document and return to kathryn@kathrynnelsondesign.com
